

Special Seminars with

Prof. Robert Hattam (University of South Australia)

Learning to Live in Culturally Diverse Societies

1. Researching across cultural differences

- a. Outline the case for qualitative research across cultural difference and working on a dialogical space in this seminar series
- b. The case of decolonizing methodologies (Smith) in Indigenous Studies
- c. Researching refugee communities and the (im)possibility of listening across different epistemologies and cosmologies
- d. New frontiers from critical anthropology

Discussant: Yasuhito Kinoshita (Department of Sociology)

Date & Venue: 2016. 12. 5. (Mon.) 18:20-19:50 X103 Building No.10 Ikebukuro Campus

2. The globalisation of forgiveness: the case of national reconciliation projects

- a. Preamble: Why study reconciliation?
- b. The case of national reconciliation in Australia
- c. Towards reconciliation pedagogy

Discussant: Shizu Maekawa (Ibaraki University)

Date & Venue: 2016. 12. 12. (Mon.) 18:20-19:50 X103 Building No.10 Ikebukuro Campus

3. Cultural difference as a provocation for educators

- a. Making the case for cultural difference as a key concern for educators
- b. Intercultural understanding in Australian schooling
- c. The case of culturally responsive pedagogy

Discussant: Tadamasu Kimura (Department of Media and Communication Studies)

Date & Venue: 2016. 12. 21. (Wed.) 18:20-19:50 X203 Building NO.10 Ikebukuro Campus

4. Cultural diversity and citizenship

- a. the problem of citizenship and democracy
- b. citizenship and 'disadvantaged' communities
- c. Citizenship-as-equality

Discussant: Kazuhisa Honda (Tokai University)

Date & Venue: 2017. 1. 11. (Wed.) 18:20-19:50 X103 Building No.10 Ikebukuro Campus

5. Resisting settler colonialism in Australia

- a. Preamble: old and new formations of colonization and defining settler colonialisation
- b. The case of negotiating a space in the nation: Indigenous struggle in Australia
- c. Neo-liberalism as the new formation of colonialisation

Discussant: Kayoko Ishii (Department of Contemporary Culture and Society)

Date & Venue: 2017. 1. 18. (Wed.) 18:20-19:50 X103 Building No.10 Ikebukuro Campus

Free Participation

Facilitator & Enquiries: Takashi Okumura (Department of Sociology, t-oku@rikkyo.ac.jp)

College of Sociology/Graduate School of Sociology

RIKKYO UNIVERSITY